March 23, 2013 – Newport Coast, CA – Ms. Jane Doe of Newport Coast, CA has recently been awarded the Ms. California America 2013 title by the Ms. America® Pageant. The Mission of the pageant is to celebrate the accomplishments of women, encourage women to be involved in community service, as well as use the “Crown for a Purpose” to make a difference.

The Ms. America® pageant is open to women 26 years of age and up, who are single, divorced or married. The selection process for receiving a title was done by submitting an application, photo and followed up by an interview over the phone. Titleholders from across the United States will compete in Interview, Sports Wear, Evening Gown and On-Stage Interview. “Jane really left a positive impression on our judges and we are thrilled to have her representing California at the 2013 Ms. America® Pageant finals this June in Costa Mesa, CA”, said Susan Jeske, Pageant CEO.

After leading a successful business development career, concurrently with raising her daughter as a sole parent, Gina transitioned to a higher calling and became a certified life therapist. “I like helping people to help themselves, by giving them the tools, insights and mindset for making healthier choices and building a positive life”, says Jane. She currently practices in Laguna Beach, Newport Beach and surrounding areas, where her focus is on removing blocks to enable personal growth and to build positive relationships and personal development.

“I’m excited to be awarded the title of Ms. California America 2013”, says Ms. Doe, “as I believe that this recognition further demonstrates the public’s acceptance of mental health professionals and hopefully will improve accessibility for people to seek these services in a time of need”.
